

Why stuff a KONG?

A stuffed KONG functions as a mentally stimulating challenge, since the dog has to work and figure out how to release the treats inside. Dogs everywhere can benefit from having to work for their food. Here are a few of our favorite recipes for stuffing the KONG Classic.

Summer Vacation

Peanut Butter
Fresh Banana
Fresh Mango
1 tbsp Greek Yogurt

Mix peanut butter, fresh banana, fresh mango and 1 Tbs of Greek Yogurt, stuff into a KONG and freeze.

That's Bananas

Applesauce
Banana
Apple Slices
Broth

Combine applesauce, a sliced banana, apples slices and broth. Mix, freeze and serve.

A Proper Diet

Please remember to check with your veterinarian for more information on what foods are recommended, and what to avoid feeding to your pet. Some foods do not agree with every dog's system and can cause serious health issues.

FOODS TO AVOID

grapes · raisins · chocolate · mushrooms · onions · avocados

We're hungry for more recipes. Please submit your ideas along with your contact information to recipes@kongcompany.com

Arctic Chicken

KONG Peanut Butter Spread
Kibble
Chicken Broth

Fill the small end of a KONG with Peanut Butter Spread. Combine the kibble and chicken broth and stuff into a KONG. Top it off with more Peanut Butter Spread and freeze.

