

BLACK SPANISH TURKEYS:

Black Spanish Turkeys feature beautiful, metallic black plumage with a greenish sheen. These turkeys are smaller than their commercial counterparts with the standard for young toms at 23lbs and 14lbs for young hens. They do not have the broad breast present in commercial turkey varieties and are thus still able to reproduce naturally. A rare breed of turkeys, they are classified as “watch” by the American Livestock Breed Conservancy.