

MARANS (CUCKOO):

Named for its city of origin in coastal France, the Marans is a dual purpose bird known for its quality meat and dark brown eggs. They are active and docile birds with excellent foraging skills and good personalities. The Cuckoo Marans features a black and white coloration resembling a barred pattern though not as well defined.

Main Use- M/E
Egg Production- M
Size/Color- L/Dark Brown

Best kept free range or confined; both cold hardy and heat tolerant.